

CONSULTANT/CROSS-CULTURAL COMMUNICATION WORKSHOPS: (partial listing)

Consultant to Saudi Arabia ARAMCO to interview sponsored foreign students to determine success factors of foreign students.

Provided numerous opportunities for consulting, presenting Intercultural Communication Workshops on cultural adjustment, entry and reentry (professional reintegration), and presenting papers at conferences.

Conducted two alumni abroad/ institutional advancement conferences at Texas Tech University:

- Broadening the University's Horizon: Building International Alumni Relations.
- Globalization in Institutional Advancement

OVERSEAS EXPERIENCE: (partial listing)

- Invited to collaborate on Internationalization at Home(IaH) Model in Prague, Czech Republic and to present Model at the European Association for International Education conference in Vienna,
- Austria. Also visited Bratislava, Slovakia.
- Presented at the East Asia Pacific Regional Educational Advisers' Conference (REAC) supported by the U.S. Department of State; Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. REAC includes all of the overseas educational advisers affiliated with the American embassies and consulates in Asia.
- Managed Komsomolsk-na-Amure (KnA), Russia partnership contract to educate at Texas Tech KnA students sponsored by the KnA Oil Refinery and Gagarian Air Construction Factory.
- Invited by Kumamoto University in Kumamoto, Japan to participate in special anniversary of the joint cooperative research efforts of Texas Tech University (TTU) Electrical Engineering (EE) and Kumamoto EE faculty.
- Invited by the National Council on U.S. – Arab Relations to be a Malone Fellow (similar to the Fulbright fellow) to the United Arab Emirates and Oman. Grant provided.
- Awarded American Express financial Award for outstanding international youth exchange between Texas and five states in Mexico.
- Escorted the Vice President of Academic Affairs at Texas Tech to Yamagata, Japan to evaluate the possibility of placing a Texas campus in Yamagata Prefecture. Financial support would come
- from Yamagata.
- Arranged for the Vice President to meet with a 1965 TTU alumnus who advised him not to put a campus in Japan, for there would not be enough students in the pipeline to support the campus. Excellent advice. Alumnus was identified as potential donor.
- Received a U.S. Department of Education Fulbright-Hays Grant for an educational project in the People's Republic of China, Summer 1988.
- Received a grant from the Texas Partners of the Americas to visit Lima, Peru to negotiate a cooperative educational and medical partnership project.
- Invited by the Malaysian Ministry of Education through the Texas International Education Consortium to visit Kuala Lumpur (KL), Malaysia to negotiate a 2+2 campus (first two years were in KL; second two years were in Texas universities). This project granted $25 million dollars with 32 Texas state universities participating.

- Received a U.S. Department of Education Fulbright-Hays Grant to Germany to exchange discussion of the educational, cultural, and political issues involved in the current and future development of programs of foreign student exchanges as they related to the U.S. and Germany.
- Traveled throughout Europe following a stay in Germany.
- Received invitation from the Minister of Education of the Republic of China to visit various higher education institutions and to learn more about Chinese educational and cultural exchanges.
- Wrote Fulbright-Hayes Group Projects Abroad proposal that was funded by the United States Department Education. Purpose: Study tour for 14 Texas Tech faculty members/K-12 teachers to Vietnam, Cambodia, and Laos, July 2004. Outcome: Faculty/Teachers to develop curriculum for classroom instruction.
- Selected as one of three Americans as a participant in the AIEJ-JAFSA (Association of International Education, Japan-Japan Network for International Education) International Educator Exchange Program to work on an Internationalization at Home (IaH) model with 3 Europeans, 3 Koreans, and 3 Japanese in Prague, Czech Republic and to present the Model at the EAIE (European Association for International Education) conference in Austria. Sponsored by the UNESCO-AIEJ Funds-in-Trust.
- Invited by the Joint-Stock Company of the Open Type "The Komsomolsk-na-Amur (KnA) Oil Refinery" to visit Kharbarovsk and KnA State Technical University (KnASTU) to extend collaboration/contract between KnASTU and Texas Tech University, August 1995 and 1997. Contract extended to 2003.
- Negotiated and received over $100,000 grant from HSH (Trading and Shipping) Ltd., Cyprus, for student business program.
- Received grant from the United States Information Agency Freedom Support Act exchange of Newly Independent States (NIS) students.
- Received grant from the Kazakhstan government to provide pre-med curriculum/business curriculum for Kazakhstan students.
- Received major grant for Malaysian Project from Malaysian Ministry of Education.
- Received grants from various government-sponsored projects (Bahrain, Venezuela, Saudi Arabia, Indonesia, Qatar, Algeria).
- Received Superior Achievement Award from Texas Tech University.

PUBLICATIONS: Partial listing

- Behrens, Jacque S. Reentry Crash: Valuable Education Lost, Design Productivity Institute and International Engineering Conference Proceedings. Honolulu, Hawaii, February 1991. (refereed)
- Behrens, Jacque S. Texas International Education Ballet, Journal of Association of International Education Administrators (AIEA). Spring 1991. (refereed)

- Bennett, W.F. and Behrens, Jacque Segars. A Course on the Reentry and Professional Transition of International Students. Journal of the Association of International Education Administrators. Volume 8, Number 1, Spring 1988.
- Behrens, Jacque Segars and Bennett, W.F. (eds.). Looking Forward/Looking Backward: The Cultural Adaptation of International Students. Lubbock, Texas: Texas Tech University Press, October 1986.
- Wheelless, Lawrence; Erickson, Keith V.; and Behrens, Jacque S. Western and Non-Western Disclosiveness As a Function of Locus of Control, International Communications Monograph, March 1986.